

A journaling page template featuring a background of two polka-dot patterns: a white background with small grey dots on the left and a grey background with large white dots on the right. A central grey rectangular box is divided into two horizontal sections. The word "Journaling" is written in a black cursive font across the top section. A dark grey hexagon and a white hexagon are positioned at the top left corner of the page. A light grey hexagon containing the word "Title" is located at the bottom right. The website address "scrapbookkingstore.com" is printed at the bottom center.
